

Title: Material Qualification Engineer

Responsibility:

Evaluation and technical qualification of metallic and non-metallic materials and sources, statistical data analysis and metallurgical literature studies. Support quality of procurement through technical audits and qualification procedures. To perform investigations and analyses and prepare the technical documentation.

Domain expertise required:

Aeronautical/ Mechanical/ Metallurgical Engineer with experience from manufacturing industry. Experience in aircraft materials and processing will be preferred.

Technology expertise required:

Mechanics of materials, fundamentals of metallurgy and material sciences, statistics, regulations / standards /qualification procedures and manufacturing processes of materials

To apply:

Send your latest CV to material.aeci@airbus.com