Airbus informs German authorities on regulatory matter

Munich, 18 September 2019 – Airbus SE (stock exchange symbol: AIR) has self-declared to German authorities potential wrongdoings by several employees with respect to certain customer documents relating to two future German procurement projects in the programme line Communications, Intelligence and Security.

This self-disclosure follows an ongoing internal review with the support of an external law firm.

The company is fully cooperating with relevant authorities to resolve the matter.
