- 10.1 All documents and objects of any kind provided to the Supplier by the Purchaser remain the property of the Purchaser. They may be used exclusively for providing the ordered Deliveries or Services. The Supplier shall insure all objects provided to him against loss and deterioration. The Supplier does not have any retention right with respect to the objects of the Purchaser.

- 10.2 To the extent that objects provided by the Purchaser are processed or transformed by the Supplier into a new movable object, the Purchaser is deemed to be the manufacturer. In the case of a connection or inseparable mixing with other objects, the Purchaser acquires joint ownership in the new object in proportion of the value, which the objects had at the time of connection or mixing. If the connection or mixing occurs in a manner, where the objects of the Supplier have to be considered the main object, it shall be agreed that the Supplier transfers proportional joint ownership to the Purchaser, while the Supplier stores the joint ownership for the Purchaser free of charge.

- 10.3 The Supplier shall carry out any maintenance and inspection work that may be necessary at his own expense and shall insure the provided objects sufficiently and prove this to the Purchaser upon request.

11. Confidentiality

- 11.1 The order of the Purchaser shall be treated confidentially. The Supplier furthermore shall keep all commercial and technical information and documents, which become known to him through the business relationship and which are not generally known, secret and use these exclusively for providing the ordered Deliveries. Drawings, models, samples, and similar objects shall not be submitted or made available to unauthorized third parties. Duplicating such objects is permitted only within the limits of copyright provisions and to the extent required in order to fulfill the obligations incumbent upon the Supplier. Any subcontractors shall be bound to confidentiality accordingly.

- 11.2 The Supplier is only entitled to mention, depict, or use the company name, the logo or the trademarks of the Purchaser in any other way for purposes of advertising materials, when naming references, or for other publications, if the Purchaser has consented to this in writing in advance.

- 11.3 The Purchaser may demand observance of further security regulations.

12. Spare Parts, Readiness to Deliver

- 12.1 The Supplier shall supply spare parts to the Purchaser under fair and reasonable conditions throughout the period of the usual technical lifetime, but in any case for a period of at least ten years after the last Deliveries.

- 13.1 If the Deliveries or the Services provided by the Supplier are subject to patent or copyright protection, the Purchaser shall be granted all rights of reproduction, use, operation, release, adaptation, modification or translation of the Deliveries or Services as far as this is necessary for the purpose of the purchase order. The grant of rights under this Section is included in the compensation according to Section 3.

- 13.3 The Supplier shall inform the Purchaser - at the latest at the time the order is confirmed - whether the Deliveries and Services to be delivered contain "open source software". In the context of this provision "Open Source Software" means any software that is provided royalty-free by the respective licensor to any user on the basis of a license or another agreement with the right to modify and/or to distribute such software. By means of example and without limitation, Open License Terms include the following licenses: the GNU General Public License (GPL), the GNU Lesser GPL (LGPL), the BSD License, the Apache License or the MIT License.

 - A written declaration that through the intended use of the open source software neither the Deliveries of the Supplier nor the products of the Purchaser will be subject to a "Copyleft Effect". In the context of this provision, "Copyleft Effect" means that the provisions of the open source license require that certain of the Supplier's Deliveries, as well as any products derived from these, may only be distributed further in accordance with the terms of the open source license e.g. only if the source code is disclosed.
- Should the Supplier not indicate until after receipt of the order that its Deliveries and Services contain open source software, then the Purchaser is entitled to cancel the order within 14 days of receipt of this information and provision of all the information contained in the above paragraph.

If the Purchaser is held responsible by a third party because of the defectiveness of a product and if the defectiveness is due entirely or in part to a defect of the Supplier's Deliveries, the Purchaser may instead of compensation of all losses also demand indemnification vis-à-vis the third party. The Supplier's obligation to pay damages shall also include the costs of a precautionary recall measure in order to prevent damage, if this is appropriate.
- 14.2 The Supplier shall indemnify the Purchaser against any liability based on claims that the Deliveries and Services of the Supplier intentionally or negligently infringe any third-party rights. In this case, the Supplier shall indemnify and hold harmless the Purchaser on first written demand from all cost, expenses and payment obligations arising from the infringement. The Purchaser shall refrain from concluding any agreements with the third party related to the infringement, in particular from any settlement agreement, without the Supplier's prior approval.

On request, the Purchaser shall provide the Supplier with a printed copy of these provisions.

15.3 The Supplier shall employ only such employees for works at the Purchaser who have the qualification required for this work. The Supplier shall make corresponding proof available to the Purchaser upon request with short notice for a sample examination.

16. Termination of Services

16.1 The statutory provisions of the German Civil Code concerning the termination of Deliveries and Services shall apply.

16.2 Moreover, the Purchaser may terminate the relevant purchase order(s) if the Supplier has failed to observe or perform any of the conditions of the order(s) and has failed to remedy any such breach within thirty (30) days of notice thereof from the Purchaser. Any claims for damages shall remain unaffected by such termination.

17. Insurance

17.1 The Supplier shall conclude and maintain with insurers of recognized reputation and security adequate insurance policies to cover its liabilities under the purchase orders issued by the Purchaser. At a minimum, Supplier shall maintain a General Third Party liability Insurance for an amount of no less than 5.000.000 (five million) EUR per occurrence and in the yearly aggregate. The Supplier shall also conclude and maintain Product Liability Insurance. 17.2 The Supplier shall provide certificates of such insurances on request of the Purchaser at any time.

18. Final Provisions

18.1 The laws of the Federal Republic of Germany excluding the provisions of the UN Convention on the International Sale of Goods (CISG) shall apply to all legal relationships between the Purchaser and the Supplier.

18.2 Should the Supplier cease to make payments, or if an interim insolvency administrator is appointed or if insolvency proceedings are commenced in relation to the assets of the Supplier, the Purchaser may terminate the contract and/or any purchase orders issued there under. In the event of termination the Purchaser may continue to utilize existing facilities, Deliveries or Services already performed by the Supplier in exchange for reasonable payment.

18.3 Place of venue for all disputes arising from the business relationship as governed by these General Purchasing Conditions shall be, at option of the Purchaser, the place of fulfillment as per Section 5.5 or Munich. The Purchaser is furthermore entitled to file a claim against the Supplier at any other place of general or special jurisdiction.

18.4 Changes and amendments to these General Purchasing Conditions as well as side agreements require the written form. This shall also apply to any waiver of this written-form clause.

18.5 If any of the above provisions should be or become ineffective, the validity of the remaining provisions shall remain unaffected. The parties hereto are obliged to agree upon a provision to replace the ineffective provision that approximates as closely as possible the economic intent of the ineffective provision.
