In the event the Supplier breaches or fails to comply with one or more of its obligations herein, the Purchaser may give the Supplier written notice of such breach or non-compliance at any time thereafter. The Supplier shall remedy such breach or non-compliance within twenty-eight (28) days from the date of such notice. If the Supplier does not remedy the breach or non-compliance within the said twenty-eight (28) days or if the breach is not capable of remedy then the Purchaser shall, without incurring any liability whatsoever, have the right to immediately terminate the Order in progress (in whole or in part) by giving written notice of termination to the Supplier to that effect, without prejudice to the Purchaser's rights to claim damages and/or any other remedies which the Purchaser may have at law and/or under the Order. The provisions of Article 13.4 below shall apply and the termination account shall proceed accordingly.

13.2 For Excusable Delay. In the event that an Excusable Delay exceeds or is expected to exceed thirty (30) days following the occurrence of the cause thereof, each Party shall be entitled to terminate forthwith the Order, or any part thereof, by giving written notice of termination to the other Party, without incurring any liability whatsoever.

13.3 Termination without Supplier's Default/Cancellation of Order. In the event of cessation of any of the Purchaser's activities with respect to the Aircraft programme for which a specific Order is intended (including, without limitation, because a third party has not fulfilled its obligation to supply goods required by the Purchaser or termination or cancellation of any customer's orders or contracts in progress), the Purchaser may reschedule the Order with immediate effect at no additional cost to the Purchaser, or may terminate the Order (in whole or in part) by giving a thirty (30) day prior written notice of termination to the Supplier, without incurring any liability whatsoever save that the provisions of Article 13.4.3 below shall apply and the termination account shall proceed accordingly.

13.4 Termination Procedures

13.4.1 As of the effective date of termination, the Supplier undertakes to cease all further performance related to the terminated Order (unless otherwise instructed by the Purchaser) and the Supplier shall comply with all directions or instructions regarding the Items which the Purchaser provides to the Supplier.

13.4.2 Termination for Supplier's Default. The Supplier shall be liable for all losses, expenses, costs, claims and damages incurred by the Purchaser as a result of a breach by the Supplier of this Order or of the Conditions. The Supplier shall indemnify the Purchaser in full against any losses, expenses, costs, claims or damages whatsoever (including without limitation legal costs) resulting from the negligence, willful misconduct, breach of contract or breach of statutory duty caused by the acts or omissions of the Supplier, its employees, sub-contractors or agents in performance of the Order or in connection with any defect in an Item.

13.4.3 Termination for Excusable Delay/without Supplier's Default. The Purchaser and the Supplier shall agree a fair and reasonable price for all work done and material purchased for the purpose of carrying out work on the Order up to the date of termination. In order to agree such price, the Supplier shall submit an account to the Purchaser within three (3) months from the date of termination in a form satisfactory to the Purchaser. The agreed price, together with any sums paid or due to the Supplier under the Order before the effective date of termination shall not exceed the total price of the Items under the Order and such payments shall be the Purchaser's sole liability in respect of the termination.

13.4.4 Any termination of the Order by the Purchaser for whatever reason shall be without prejudice to any rights or remedies which may have accrued to the Purchaser prior to termination and the Purchaser shall use its reasonable endeavours to mitigate its loss on any termination.

13.5 Surviving Articles. All Articles in the Order and these Conditions which by their nature should survive expiry or termination of the Order shall remain in full force and effect after such expiry or termination.

14. Intellectual Property Rights:

14.1 All intellectual property created as a result of the work undertaken by the Supplier or its sub-contractors for the purpose of the Order, or for the supply of the Items, shall automatically be transferred to the Purchaser and all such rights shall vest in and be the sole property of the Purchaser. If, however, by operation of law, the Supplier is deemed the owner of the rights for such newly created intellectual property, the Supplier hereby grants to the Purchaser, and will cause its employees, agents and contractors to grant to the Purchaser as soon as created and in consideration of the price set forth in the Order, an irrevocable, royalty free, transferrable, worldwide licence for full exploitation rights of the created intellectual property including the right of reproduction in any form, language, format and medium, the right of distribution in part or in whole including the right to sell, loan, rent, distribute, download by any means and in any language, the right to modify, adapt, improve, correct and translate in any form and language, and interface with any other item, including the right to sub-license all the above-mentioned rights.

14.2 The Supplier undertakes to execute any assignment or other documentation necessary to give effect to the transfer of the intellectual property created as a result of the work undertaken by the Supplier or its sub-contractors for the purpose of the Order to the Purchaser.

14.3 The Supplier hereby grants to the Purchaser, at no additional charge beyond the price specified on the Order, an irrevocable, non-exclusive and worldwide licence to hold, use and sub-license for the benefit of third parties all relevant Supplier's background intellectual property necessary for the performance of the Order or the use of the Item for the duration of the rights, which the Supplier shall ensure lasts at a minimum for the duration of the Purchaser's reasonable intended use of the Items. The Supplier grants the Purchaser the right to sub-license all the above-mentioned rights.

14.4 In addition, and in the case of customised or altered off-the-shelf Items and non-off-the-shelf Items, such licence granted by the Supplier to the Purchaser shall include for the Purchaser the right of reproduction in any form, language, format and medium, the right of distribution in part or in whole including the right to sell, loan, rent, distribute, download by any means and in any language, the right to modify, adapt, improve, correct and translate in any form and language, and interface with any other item. The Supplier grants the Purchaser the right to sub-license all the above-mentioned rights.

14.5 Infringement Indemnity. With respect to any third party claims, suits or actions relating to the infringement or alleged infringement of any intellectual property rights of a third party in relation to the Items purchased or the Order, the Supplier shall defend, fully indemnify and hold harmless the Purchaser, its agents, successors and assigns, against any and all costs, losses, damages, liabilities, expenses (including legal fees), fines or other financial sanctions or loss of profit which may be incurred as a result of any alleged or proven infringement.

14.6 The Supplier shall promptly inform the Purchaser of any dispute or claim (legal or otherwise) that arises with a third party and the substance of such dispute or claim.

14.7 The Purchaser shall at its discretion be given full control of any proceedings or negotiations in connection with any claims, suits or actions and shall pursue these diligently unless the Parties agree otherwise. The Parties shall consult closely in relation to defending such claims, suits and actions.

15. Confidentiality and Publicity:

15.1 Any and all information relating to the Order and communicated by the Purchaser to the Supplier, or to which the Supplier may have access in connection with the Order, and/or any information in any form, on any medium, which is declared as being confidential or which can reasonably be regarded as confidential because it is by its nature, commercially sensitive or is manifestly of a confidential nature shall be referred to as "Confidential Information".

15.2 The Supplier shall use Confidential Information exclusively for the purposes of the Order. Disclosure of Confidential Information to the Supplier's personnel shall be for the purpose of performance of this Order only and shall be on a strictly need-to-know basis. The Supplier shall not disclose any Confidential Information to any third party without the Purchaser's prior written consent.

If the Supplier is a Spanish Supplier, it shall comply with the "Security, Acceptable Use of Information Systems and Confidentiality Instructions" of the Purchaser. For this purpose, the Supplier shall inform its personnel and/or the personnel of its suppliers and authorised subcontractors performing their functions on the premises of the Purchaser, of their obligation to sign and comply with the "Security, Acceptable Use of Information Systems and Confidentiality Instructions", available for them at the Purchaser's identification security offices.

15.3 The Supplier shall be under no obligation of confidentiality if it can prove that the Confidential Information was (i) already publicly known when the Supplier gained access to it or (ii) that it became publicly known through no fault of the Supplier after it gained access to it or (iii) that the Supplier was able to lawfully gain access to the Confidential Information.

15.4 The obligations herein relating to confidentiality shall remain in full force and effect for the duration of any Order and continue for a period of five (5) years after the expiry or termination of the Order.

15.5 Neither Party shall make any news release or public announcement referring to the Order, nor use, reproduce or imitate for any purpose whatsoever any of the filed, registered or unregistered trademarks of the other Party or of any Airbus Company, including its company names, associated logos, programme names or logos associated with its products or services, unless a prior written consent is given by the other Party or, in regard to any Airbus Company, by the Purchaser.

16. Assignment and Transfer:

The Purchaser shall be entitled to assign or transfer at any time all or part of its rights, warranties, benefits, remedies and obligations under the Order to any third party. The Supplier shall not assign or transfer any of its benefits, rights, remedies and/or obligations under the Order to a third party without the prior written consent of the Purchaser.

17. Applicable Law and Settlement of Disputes:

17.1 This Order shall be governed by and construed and shall take effect in accordance with the laws of Spain, excluding the application of the 1980 "United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sales of Goods".

17.2 Amicable Resolution. In the event of any dispute, controversy or claim (a "Dispute"), arising out of or in connection with this Order including any question regarding its existence, validity or termination, the Parties shall make every effort to resolve the Dispute amicably within a period of three (3) months following written notification of a Dispute by one to the other.

17.3 Arbitration. If the Parties fail to amicably resolve the Dispute within the three (3) month period referred to above, such Dispute shall be finally determined and settled by arbitration under the Rules of Arbitration of the International Chamber of Commerce. The number of arbitrators shall be three (3) and the place of arbitration shall be Madrid. The language to be used in the arbitral proceedings shall be English.

17.4 The existence and content of the arbitral proceedings and any rulings or award shall be kept confidential by the Parties and members of the arbitral tribunal except (i) to the extent that disclosure may be required of a Party to fulfil a legal duty, protect or pursue a legal right, or enforce or challenge an award in bona fide legal proceedings before a state court or other judicial authority, (ii) with the consent of all Parties, (iii) where such information is already in the public domain other than as a result of a breach of this Article, or (iv) by order of the arbitral tribunal upon application of a Party.

17.5 The Parties may, by agreement in writing following the notification of the Dispute, elect to adhere to a different form of alternative dispute resolution or to litigate in courts of law, in order to resolve the Dispute.

18. Amendments:

The Order including these Conditions shall not be amended except by specific agreement in writing (including changes and amendments to this Article), signed by duly authorised representatives of the Parties.

19. Independent Contractors:

The relationship of the Parties under these Conditions shall be that of independent contractors. Neither Party shall have the right to contract or in any other way to enter into commitments on behalf of or in the name of the other Party.

20. No Joint and Several Liability:

The Parties agree that the Purchaser alone shall be exclusively liable to the Supplier for payment of all sums due in connection with the Order to the exclusion of all other Airbus Companies.

21. Whole Agreement:

21.1 This Order constitutes the entire agreement between the Parties in relation to its subject matter. It replaces and extinguishes all prior agreements, draft agreements, arrangements, collateral warranties, collateral contracts, statements, assurances, representations and undertakings of any nature made by or on behalf of the Parties, whether oral or written, in relation to that subject matter.

21.2 Each Party acknowledges that in entering into this Order it has not relied upon any oral or written statements, collateral or other warranties, assurances, representations or undertakings which were made by or on behalf of the other Party in relation to the subject matter of this Order at any time before its signature (together "Pre-Contractual Statements"), other than those which are set out in this Order. Each Party hereby waives all rights and remedies which might otherwise be available to it in relation to such Pre-Contractual Statements.

21.3 Nothing in this Article 21 shall exclude or restrict the liability of either Party arising out of its pre-contract fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation.

22. Notices:

Unless otherwise specified, all notices and communications between the Purchaser and the Supplier in respect of the Order shall be in writing and sent by hand, mail, electronic mail, facsimile or messenger service to the Procurement Department at the Purchaser's facility identified in the Specific Conditions. The date of delivery of any such notice or communication shall be the date of despatch, if delivered by hand, electronic mail, facsimile or messenger service, or five (5) days after mailing, if delivered by mail.

23. Waiver:

Failure or delay at any time by either Party to enforce any provision of the Order, or any part thereof, shall not constitute a waiver of such provision or affect the validity of the Order or any part thereof, nor prejudice the right of the affected Party to enforce such provision at a subsequent time.

24. Severability:

Any provision of the Order prohibited by, or unlawful or unenforceable under the applicable law actually applied by any court of competent jurisdiction shall, to the extent required by such law, be severed from the Order and replaced with another provision having substantially the same effect without it modifying the remaining provisions.

25. Language:

These Conditions have been drawn up in English and only this language version shall be deemed authentic. Any translation of these Conditions into a language other than English shall be for information purposes only.
