

H145

Helionix on board

Reduced workload for the crew and enhanced safety

Up to 95% availability

Easy maintenance with new rotor system

-30% operational costs

Compared with major competitors

High and hot performance

Can be operated up to 6,000 metres

Outstanding useful load

>50% of maximum take-off weight available as useful load (~2 tons)

Comfort of ride

Smooth flight for crew and passengers with the 5-bladed rotor

All missions possible

Flexible seating and quick role changes

Quietest in class

Lowest external sound signature

-30% CO₂ emissions

Compared with major competitors

Ready for Sustainable Aviation Fuel (SAF)

Reduces significantly CO₂ emissions