

AH-125 / MH-125 ARES

A multi-role combat-capable version of the best-selling H125, designed to meet the most demanding requirements of the U.S. government's military and parapublic allies and partners.

Made in America

 Airbus Helicopters in North America

50+ years

 U.S. military veteran workforce:

35% in Columbus, MS

PRODUCTION SITE

Columbus, Mississippi 220,000-sq.-ft.

U.S. HEADQUARTERS
Grand Prairie, Texas

AH-125 ARES

EO/IR
Cockpit and cargo area ballistic protection

MAG weapon system

A wide range of weapons can be integrated on multiple weapon stations per pylon

Interchangeable in ~30 minutes

MH-125 ARES

Downlink / Uplink for data sharing
Multiple radio options available
Installation allows for doors-on throughout mission scenarios
Searchlight

Fast rope and hoist operations

Best cabin in its class, with a flat floor and cargo / passenger compartment design

Tactical Transport

Up to 8 troops for transport and insertion missions

Light Attack

Best useable weight of any aircraft in its class, offering the most endurance, range, and payload options

MEDEVAC / CASEVAC

Casualty evacuation operations even with other mission configurations installed

Other missions

AIRBUS